PLAINTIFF ePLUS INC.'S FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO DEFENDANT LAWSON SOFTWARE, INC.

Pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff ePlus inc., (“ePlus”), hereby requests that, within thirty (30) days of the date of service of these interrogatories, and in accordance with the following definitions and instructions, Defendant Lawson Software, Inc. (“Lawson”) answer separately, in writing, and under oath, by an officer or duly authorized agent of Lawson, the following interrogatories.

The following interrogatories are continuing, and Lawson must promptly supplement its answers in accordance with Federal Rule 26 as additional or corrected information comes to its attention and that of its attorneys.

DEFINITIONS

1. The definitions contained herein, unless provided otherwise, apply to all discovery requests, including subsequent discovery requests.

2. “Person” means any natural person, group of natural persons, a partnership of any kind, a corporation, or any business, legal or governmental entity or association including the parties, and the “acts” of a person shall include the acts of directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, consultants, and attorneys acting on the person’s behalf.

3. “ePlus” refers to Plaintiff ePlus inc., and includes ePlus’ subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns, and all of their officers, directors, shareholders, employees, agents, attorneys and representatives. The group of persons falling under this definition and to which the discovery requests, including the following interrogatories, shall apply include those persons falling under this definition in the past, present and during and throughout this lawsuit going into the future.

4. “You” or “your” means Lawson.

5. “Lawson” means the Defendant Lawson Software, Inc., and includes Lawson’s parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns, and all of their officers, directors, principal owners, partners or shareholders, employees, agents, attorneys and representatives. The group of persons falling under this definition and to which the discovery requests, including the following interrogatories, shall apply include those persons falling under this definition in the past, present and during and throughout this lawsuit going into the future.

6. The word “document” is used herein in its broadest sense to mean every document or other record of any kind to the broadest extent permitted under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including, without limitation, any written, printed, typed, recorded, computerized or electronic data, taped, filmed, graphic or other matter, in whatever form, whether in final or draft, however produced or reproduced, and any written or original, master, duplicate, paper copy or electronic copy. “Documents” shall further include all aural, visual records or representations (including, without limitation, photographs, negatives and prints), microfiche, microfilm, film, videotape, sound recordings, and motion pictures and computer, electronic, mechanical or electric records or representations of any kind (including, without limitation, tapes, cassettes, discs, recordings, programs, etc.). “Electronic data” includes without limitation all text files (including word processing documents and presentations), spread sheets, electronic mail documents (emails), instant messages including those saved as files and stored on computer systems, databases, calendars, computer system activity logs, audit trails, data used for electronic data interchange, internet usage files, network access information, voice mail, digitized audio, digital image files, video files (e.g., data stored in MPEG, JPEG, GIF, TIFF and BMP formats) and any other information stored magnetically, optically or electronically, and data stored on workstations, laptops, network servers, removable media, handheld devices, backup tapes, hard disk drives, diskettes, and other computer media such as magnetic tape, floppy disks, memory sticks and recordable optical disks. “Documents” shall include, without limitation, any record of all or any portions of any discussion, communication, agreement, conversation, interview, meeting, conference, conclusion, fact, impression, occurrence, opinion, report or other similar matter, and also shall include, without limitation, all correspondence, papers, e-mail, cablegrams, mailgrams, telegrams, notes, memoranda, summaries, abstracts, worksheets, books, manuals, publications, engineering reports and notebooks, plats, charts, plans, diagrams, sketches or drawings, photographs, reports and/or summaries of investigations and/or surveys, opinions and reports of appraisers or consultants, projections, corporate records, minutes of board of directors or committee meetings, desk calendars, appointment books, diaries, diary entries and notes, newspapers, magazines, or periodical articles, and other record of any kind.

7. The word “thing” is used herein in its broadest sense to mean each item, sample, specimen, concrete or tangible object.

8. “Discussion” means an assembly, congregation, encounter, meeting or conversation between or among two or more individuals for any purpose, whether or not planned, arranged, or scheduled in advance. “Discussions” include, without limitation, all oral communications, whether or not in person, by telephone, or otherwise, between two or more individuals.

9. “Communication” means any discussion or any written or electronic correspondence, of any kind.

10. “Disclosure” means an act or instance of communicating information, including written, oral or electronic communication. “Disclosures” include, without limitation, all oral, written or electronic communications, whether or not in person, by telephone, computer, Internet or otherwise, between two or more individuals.

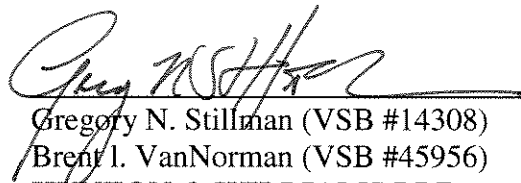

11. “Employee” means any director, trustee, officer, manager, supervisor, employee, or servant of the designated entity, whether active or retired, full-time or part-time, current or former, and compensated or not.

12. “Entity” means any corporation, company, partnership, proprietorship, joint venture, or business, as well as any governmental unit.

13. “Individual” means a human being unless Defendant cannot identify such individual by name. In such case, “individual” shall mean the entity with which such individual was or is employed, engaged or associated. “Individual” includes, without limitation, employees and representatives.

Respectfully submitted,
